

Fasciotomy Closure

History

Closure of a forearm fasciotomy following embolectomy on an eighty-nine-year-old male taking anti-coagulants. No complications and no surgery performed to close the wound.

Arm wound 5 days post-fasciotomy, following embolectomy.

First application of tapes.

Subsequent application of tapes.

Healed wound.